

Policy: AIDS

Policy Statement

The Superior North Catholic District School Board is committed to providing the protection and safety of any student or staff member afflicted with the HIV virus and/or AIDS. Any student or staff infected with this disease will be treated in a compassionate and Christian manner. The Board will endeavour to obtain and communicate the most up-to-date information available for the purpose of:

Education and Awareness

In cooperation with our local partners in learning, educate our students to live responsible, compassionate lives with a factual knowledge of the HIV virus and AIDS.

Confidentiality

We will ensure that each person with AIDS will be treated in a compassionate way with privacy and strict confidentiality.

Rights

The rights of the individual will be protected.
